FORT COLLINS, Colorado, USA

A unique exhibition of work by seven Colorado Photographers will be featured in The Center for Fine Art Photography's upcoming Colorado Photographer's Exhibition. Each photographer will have six of their images on display in the Center's gallery from October 2 – 6, 2007. The seven photographers in this exceptional display are Charlotte Grace of Denver, Gwen Laine of Wheatridge, Matthew Lit of Dillon, Pam Nickoles of Golden, Ilene Nova of Centennial, Justin VanAlstyne of Fort Collins, and Stephen Weaver of Colorado Springs. The Juror for this first Colorado Photographer's Exhibition is Larry Padgett, the Executive Director for The Center for Fine Art Photography. An artists' and public reception for the Colorado Photographer's Exhibition will be held on Friday, October 5, during the Fort Collins Gallery Walk from 6 – 9pm.

In addition to the Colorado Photographer's Exhibition, the Center's smaller gallery will be hosting a public sale of a number of the Center's collection of photographic images from past exhibitions. This sale is to benefit the Center's programs.

The Center for Fine Art Photography is a non-profit organization whose mission is to showcase the work of leading and emerging photographers and to educate the public about the collectable value of photographic art. The Center is located on the 3rd floor of the Fort Collins Museum of Contemporary Art, 201 South College Ave., Fort Collins, CO, 80524. Phone 970.224.1010. Gallery hours are 12-5pm Tuesday through Saturday. For more information about the Center's activities, including information on workshops or forums, please see the website at www.c4fap.org.
